The indoctrinating of Israel and the strategy to retrieve its theft as told to Zack Sayegh. It was the summer of 1970 six years after we first heard of the state of Israel the orthodox union of American Jews was in its infancy and the first successful community began with the ability to correctly read the Torah and they were Ahi-ezer. That was when we heard that a country named Israel without any agreed or understood connection announced they are descended from the ancient Israelite our uncontrollable laughter will always be remembered as one of life's great moments. I was with my childhood sister Marsha Mindy Sayegh who else I was called Zack never realized my name is also Isaac we were the first of orthodox etiquette for the Torah's understanding and not obedience which is belief to reward unneeded emotions. The text is of aseance by dream clubs that are prevalent in the occult and describes the evolution of sorcery by their trance conversations as the evolution of earth and its species. The Torah introduces alohim as the all-powerful creator in a language developed to circumvent the realization of their occult culture that forbids its ridicule with two additional understanding's coded as keys of its language's letters from lists of philosophy and science. The Torah developed into the satire of Russia's occult as it described the environs of prophets sorcerers and witches that decide fate that became a commitment to present on stage from its origin to its verified saga's completion. The text developed the ability to analyze phrases of its seance's that began to be publicized as the saga of the people of Israel that appeared in fated spurts and were intended only as a subject to observe. The Torah was taught by enchanting its story to the residents of the dream club's occult environment not knowing any other method of instruction beginning the mimic of the text's subjects observed spurts into a real life self-preserved uniformed dialect. They were aware and nevertheless began the obsessed planning to accept the newly published Jewish calendar establishing their longevity. The Jewish religion of philosophy developed similarly from a cultural program fostered by the dreams of family warmth with its language's songs. The Jewish overwhelmed Russian society when introduced after the 19th century when presented as a nation of 2000 years with almost all of Russia knowing and phrasing the Torah a fairytale as a law book. The new country to its south resulted from the scripture incantation "go as everything is for you" adopted the substituted identity Israel not realizing its meaning's outcome and began to document adherents of yehova's message and as the anointed god of Israel by alohim's transcribed imagination. They are Russia obsessed to indoctrinate that overwhelm and now it was of them. The readers of the satire both Americans and the Israelis that followed have to decipher and not perceive to understand what was spoken or what was quoted. The enchantments of indoctrination is absorbed as inversed bits of memory traveling throughout the anatomy and again inversed when anatomically accepted dominating response and its memory that is permanent and absorbed by all sound and sight. The stories when scrutinized are composed from keys of philosophy and science for its three designed understandings. The key for philosophy lists aleph-acquaint, bet -integrate, gimel-also, daled-set, hey-not imagined, vav-modify, zayin-outward,chet - happened, tet-engulf, yud-individual,chaff-accept, lamed-instruction, mem- nature, nun-ability,samech-teach, eyin-fantasize, peh-image,tzadik-conform, kuffconclusion, raish- spirit, shin- sound, tuff -concept. The key for science was for the additional understanding as all essences are preserved experiments aleph-anode, bet-integrate, gimel- possibility, daled-standard, hey-height, vav-modify, zayin-oxidation, chet-heat, tet-absorbs, yud-individual participation, chaff- cathode, lamed-instructions, mem-measured, nun- achieve, samech-product verified, eyin- essence, peh-breed mix, tzadik-symmetry, kuff-non-absorbent, raish- reducing agent, shin-entropy, tuff- theorem. The vowels when attached pronounce sound that designates its distance influence or esteem.

The real story is the saga of themselves and for themselves to account for the never remembered outcomes of their imagination continuing with Noah a name and term of the powder that is part of the essence mix of sorcery that began to be distributed openly within their environs. They overtook the earth when measurements were understood to design security for their families and Noah announced as the righteous was understood conformity that when his family cursed would continue to all following generations. The humanity that they were among was considered only a species that reasoned with memory that is not respected as permanent to be constantly conquered becoming the curse of their civilization on all time. The story continues to the enchantment of yehova as alohim's god apprentice that charmed all who were needed for the goal that he was given as the one and only to be loved by the identified Israel that was confusing as his enchantments were the slavery that he fostered along with its promised exodus that always will be attached. Then there was Moses recruited to be the main assistant in what was never a law book but a book describing a society of occult overtaking one another and Israel the term that was becoming the real saga as none survived. They never were described a large group or had continuity other than the term and never were able to maintain a bloodline or successfully marry. They conversed as text every now and then about strategy always becoming bewilderment to the dedicated fans not realizing they were repeating an enchanter's fantasy. The seances in any generation requiring two or more active participants within the addictive essence could have developed the story that conjures names to identify terms that continue to plans that become scenarios and if spell-bind into a numbered sequence will become a never ending story or goal. The clubs dream in metaphors that some participants believe is reality and others not. Those bewitched to dominate the conversation with whatever belief believed get the upper hand in the developing metaphors until it's ended. The Torah's characters added styled phrases for thoughts that included to the slaves of Egypt beginning as unknown and continuing with fantasies of journeys by names not realized mostly as narration. The known sacrificed child Isaac preceding Moses as a mentor and implied born as the illegitimate son to Abraham and his explained wife Sarah. Abraham was fantasized as passionately emotional about his wife in a paragraph that was written as a dream and never was reality. A mother or father is usually identified with the word birth otherwise considered an influence by their name's describing attitudes. The phrases "and he said or spoke" are prophecies of incantations that was read in text as narration. The term differentiate incorrectly understood as a measure of time was detailing items as chemicals described as a sign and when prepared a sign composed with the 6th letter key meaning modify with the beginning chapter expressing nine mixes as oil as all items mentioned in the Torah are processed. The paragraph expresses the unforgiving reality that develops with time. The term victim was understood as part of the Jewish religion's belief as requiring sacrifices of livestock instead required silence in the assumed essence for a week in an attempt to enchant silence that was intended to fail as a chant for silence was required. The majority of readers understood the text as how society should improve or behave never being able to understand the scripture fully. The portrayed lawgiver Moses was never assumed unable to comprehend beyond his ability as a prophet in reality one that prepares enchantments. The enchantments perpetually required yehova and alohim to be loved sorcerers were intrigued to know if the essence to enchant the prophet's phrases was prepared correctly, it was not always. Sorcery is indoctrination. Those that bewitch also bewitch themselves along with their families, livestock, rodents and insects with indifference to any life species.

The key as numerical value's are aleph-1, bet- 2, gimel-3, daled-4, hey- 5, vav-6, zayin-7, chet-8, tet-9, yud-10, chaff- 20, lamed-30, mem-40, nun-50,samech- 60, eyin-70, peh-80,tzadik-90, kuff-100, raish-200, shin- 300,tuff-400.

The Jewish year 5721 was a sum composed by keys as "tashcha" was set to 1961 with letter's tuff, shin, chaff and aleph meaning the theorem of entropy as a cathode is to acquaint and as Ahi-ezer explained by the closing of the previous Jewish New Year the theorem of entropy is how sorcery is understood as its strength is hidden. The emphasis when shown as a slash in its Hebrew indicates a change from key to key for the same phrase. The additional year 1974 was tuned to tashlad-5734 tuff, shin, lamed and daled the theorem of entropy as instruction is set. The enchantments are intended for the child born in 1961 and was thirteen years of age when Jewish tradition agreed that males have independent entitlements including a magic apprenticeship. The Russian planners did not permit any reprieve of their tradition's sadistic bewitchments avoided or prevented for the child to be enchanted. The year 2017 is that of tashaach-5778 that is tuff, shin, eyin and chet the theorem of entropy's essence happened. The calendar published by Ahi-ezer along with its other endowment's of the 1960's having to return.

Kashrus was an additional idea taken from the Torah that begin with Jewish expansion after 1960 originally thought philosophical commandments for cuisine and then realized a new obsession that was designed to develop imaginations of science and a kitchen that could be conscripted laboratories. The commandments required maintaining rules to measure separate and heat with methods of washing utensils and when concern as too much was expected inconsistencies were added as a future challenge if the strategy failed.

Journal begins Livingston street Brooklyn New York in November of 1978 at my alma mater the High school City as School I realize I have to go as my life's future determines with all possible happiness sacrificed. I couldn't remember my teacher's moments after leaving our embrace. Then I listened to the plan read from notes of future indoctrinations who would believe. The notes will be enchanted to me in about 40 years as part of the spell bonded to capture the Soviet god the formula of the occult essence.
